CHURCH TREASURE HUNT 7th JULY

Please sign up by TODAY, Sunday 1st July at the latest, if you would like to take part, as we need to know numbers for the barbeque by then. Just indicate if you would prefer to drive or be a passenger and we can work out “teams” when we know who will be taking part. Any Questions, please ask Hilary Gooding or Garth or Barbie Watson. More information on the green sheet at back of Church

A GROWING COMMUNITY...

Cherubs Parents and Toddler group is a thriving part of St Michaels Church outreach mission. They meeting on a Friday morning during term time from 9.30-11.15am. We are having a meeting on Wednesday 18th July at 7.30pm in the Alec Moore room, regarding the growth of this group. If you feel called to this ministry, it would be great to see you there. Sharon.

ST MICHAEL’S CROSS

Please sign up for the St Michael’s Cross, lots of spaces from July onwards.

CHURCH FLOWERS

The Flower Arranging Team are hoping that the last two remaining spaces on the Flower Rota can be filled by someone. These cover one week only (the usual routine being for a fortnight) so might appeal to someone new who would like to have a go! The available dates are Sunday 30th September and Sunday 4th November. If you want to ask us about this, please speak to: Barbie W, Freda S, Joan W, Jenny H, Jill L, or Ann L, at the 8am service.

CHAIRS & CONSULTATION NOTES

As discussed at our coffee, cake and consultation, we have a selection of new chairs on loan to gauge opinion. Please try them all, and indicate which chair is your favourite by placing a star sticker on the pictures at the table on the back. Notes from the meeting are now available at the back of church or on the website. Thank you.

SIDESPERSONS MEETING

There will be a meeting of sidespersons with the Churchwardens on 8th July after the service to discuss safety procedures in the event of an emergency, as well as reviewing our ministry of welcome. Please make every effort to attend. Thank you Alan & Marjorie

“BREAKING OUT OF OUR ECHO CHAMBER”

Greenbelt meeting Sunday 1st July downstairs in Church House, Wimborne, 7.30-9pm Based on a recording of a lively panel discussion at last year’s national Greenbelt, with Jack Munroe, Peter Osbourne of the Daily Mail and Vanessa Baird of New International. How can we use the media to learn to recognise and start to heal the divisions in our society? The aim is to help us widen the range of what we absorb, to better understand people with different views.

clearly naming "Church Notices", or if leaving a written message in the office, it helps if it is dated.

COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people, that in their vocation and ministry they may serve you in holiness and truth to the glory of your name; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Wisdom of Solomon 1.13-15; 2.23,24

Because God did not make death, and he does not delight in the death of the living. For he created all things so that they might exist; the generative forces of the world are wholesome, and there is no destructive poison in them, and the dominion of Hades is not on earth. For righteousness is immortal.

For God created us for incorruption, and made us in the image of his own eternity, but through the devil's envy death entered the world, and those who belong to his company experience it.

2 Corinthians 8.7-15

Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking.

I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something— now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has—not according to what one does not have. I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. As it is written, ‘The one who had much did not have too much, and the one who had little did not have too little.’

Mark 5.21-43

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered round him; and he was by the lake. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, ‘My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.’ 24 So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, ‘If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.’ Immediately her haemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, ‘Who touched my clothes?’ And his disciples said to him, ‘You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, “Who touched me?”’ He looked all round to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, ‘Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.’

While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader’s house to say, ‘Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?’ But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, ‘Do not fear, only believe.’ He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, ‘Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.’ And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child’s father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, ‘Talitha cum’, which means, ‘Little girl, get up!’ And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Grant, O Lord, we beseech you, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by your governance, that your Church may joyfully serve you in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

NEXT SUNDAY’S READINGS: Ezekiel 2.1-5; 2 Corinthians 12.2-10; Mark 6.1-13
